

APPEAL NO. 051214
FILED JUNE 22, 2005

This appeal arises pursuant to the Texas Workers' Compensation Act, TEX. LAB. CODE ANN. § 401.001 et seq. (1989 Act). A contested case hearing (CCH) was held on April 20, 2005. The hearing officer determined that the appellant's (claimant) compensable injury of _____, does not extend to and include bilateral carpal tunnel syndrome and that the claimant's impairment rating is 2%.

The claimant appealed, citing several doctor's reports which support her position. The respondent (carrier) responds, urging affirmance.

DECISION

The hearing officer's decision has become final pursuant to Section 410.169 because the claimant's appeal was not timely filed with the Texas Workers' Compensation Commission (Commission).

Section 410.202(a) provides that to appeal the decision of a hearing officer, a party shall file a written request for appeal with the Appeals Panel not later than the 15th day after the date on which the decision of the hearing officer is received from the division and shall on the same date serve a copy of the request for appeal on the other party. Section 410.202 was amended effective June 17, 2001, to exclude Saturdays and Sundays and holidays listed in Section 662.003 of the Texas Government Code from the computation of time in which to file an appeal or a response. Tex. W.C. Comm'n, 28 TEX. ADMIN. CODE § 102.5(d) (Rule 102.5(d)) provides in pertinent part that for purposes of determining the date of receipt for those written communications sent by the Commission which require the recipient to perform an action by a specific date after receipt, unless the great weight of the evidence indicates otherwise, the Commission shall deem the received date to be five days after the date mailed. See also Rule 143.3(d)(1) which provides that the hearing officer's decision is deemed received five days after mailing, unless the great weight of the evidence indicates otherwise. Rule 143.3(e) provides that a request for review shall be presumed to be timely if it is: (1) mailed on or before the 15th day after the date of receipt of the hearing officer's decision; and (2) received by the Commission not later than the 20th day after the date of receipt of the hearing officer's decision. Both portions of Rule 143.3(e) must be complied with for an appeal to be timely. Texas Workers' Compensation Commission Appeal No. 042688, decided December 1, 2004.

Records of the Commission reflect that the hearing officer's decision was mailed to the claimant on April 28, 2005. The cover letter to the hearing officer's decision contains the same address for the claimant as is shown on the CCH sign in sheet. Pursuant to Rules 102.5(d) and 143.3(1), the claimant is deemed to have received the hearing officer's decision on Tuesday May 3, 2005, unless the great weight of the evidence indicates otherwise. Although the claimant states in her appeal that she received the hearing officer's decision on May 7, 2005, the Appeals Panel has held that when Commission records show mailing to the claimant on a particular date at the correct address, the mere assertion that the decision was received after the deemed date of receipt is not sufficient to extend the date of receipt past the deemed date of receipt provided by Commission rule. Appeal No. 042688, supra. The 15th day after the claimant's deemed date of receipt, excluding Saturdays and Sundays and Holidays listed in Section 662.003 of the Texas Government Code, was May 24, 2005, and the 20th day was June 1, 2005. The claimant sent one copy of her appeal by facsimile (fax) transmission on May 27, 2005, received the same date and another copy by U.S mail in an envelope postmarked May 27, 2005, received June 2, 2005. Since neither the faxed copy nor the mailed copy was sent to the Commission on or before May 24, 2005, it was not timely filed with the Commission. Section 410.169 provides in pertinent part that a decision of a hearing officer regarding benefits is final in the absence of a timely appeal by a party.

Having determined that the hearing officer's decision and order have become final under Section 410.169 because a timely appeal was not filed with the Commission, the Appeals Panel does not have jurisdiction to review the hearing officer's decision.
